George S. Ash, being first duly sworn, on oath deposes and says: that affiant is the father of Robert Wilson Ash, and Susan ~~Ash is his mother; that affiant was personally~~ present at ~~the birth~~ of his said son Robert Wilson Ash and rendered whatever assistance he could at the birth of his said son; that said Robert Wilson Ash was born at Caldwell, Idaho, on the 17th day of March, 1913, and affiant makes this affidavit for the purpose of establishing the date of the birth of his said son, inasmuch as the records of such births at the time were not very well kept and to the knowledge of affiant there is no official record of the birth of his said son and affiant desires that said son should have as authentic proof of his birth as is [redacted] secure, and as this affidavit does establish.

We have the record of an unnamed Male Larsen child, but mother's maiden name appears as Olive Smith. If this is your sons record, and the name is not correct, it will be necessary for you to contact the attending physician and have him write and authorize us to change the maiden name of the mother. Dr. Espe is still living in Burley, Idaho. Return all correspondence, with his letter of authorization and themoney order (enclosed) and we will change the record and send you certified copy.
